Where and How to Recycle or Dispose of Christmas Trees in Indiana in January 2021

In many urban and suburban areas, Christmas trees are collected from curbside during the first 2 weeks in January.

Allen County residents may drop off and recycle their live Christmas trees at various locations free of charge, starting Thursday, Dec. 26, 2020 to Saturday, Jan. 11, 2021.

Be sure to remove all lights, wire, tinsel, ornaments, nails, stands, other NON-Organic decorative materials and other materials that are not part of the original tree. This includes tree stands also. Flocked trees are usually accepted, but not artificial trees. Large trees (larger than the standard 6 - 7 ft tree) may need to be cut in half to be acceptable by your garbage hauler. But scroll down this page for more specific information and local links.

What happens to the trees? In most cases, the trees are chipped and made into a mulch which is usually made available, free to city or county residents. Important: Never burn your Christmas tree in a fireplace or wood stove. Burning the tree may contribute to creosote buildup and could cause a chimney fire.

Food Traditions for Good Luck in the New Year

Black-Eyed Peas

Resembling coins, these beans are said to bring prosperity in the New Year and are often enjoyed in the traditional southern dish known as Hoppin’ John. In some households, enjoying this traditional dish may be preceded by a hopping dance performed around the table by the children.

Buttered Bread

New Year’s Day in Ireland is also known as Day of the Buttered Bread (or Sandwich, depending on the Gaelic translation you use.) Tradition says buttered bread placed outside the front door symbolizes an absence of hunger in the household, and presumably for the year to come.

Grapes/Raisins

Tradition in Spain says 12 grapes or raisins eaten just before midnight (one at each chime of the clock) will bring good fortune for all 12 months of the year, as long as you finish all 12 before the final stroke!

Pork

Bring on the bacon! Because pigs root forward while they forage for food (as opposed to cows, who stand still, or chickens, who scratch backwards), pork in all forms is enjoyed by many hoping to embrace the challenges and adventures that await in the coming year.

Long Noodles

Signifying longevity in Asian culture, a stir-fry of unbroken noodles is a tradition believed to bring good health and luck in the New Year. Those who can eat at least one long noodle without chewing or breaking it are said to enjoy the longest lives and best luck of all!

Round Foods

Cakes, pastries, cookies, and round fruits like clementines are traditionally enjoyed on New Year’s Day as their shape signifies that the old year has come to a close and the New Year holds the promise of a fresh start.

Monthly Photo Contest begins at Arlington Park

Have you lived in Arlington all of your life? Or, did you just move in last week? Each neighborhood seems to have its own personality and we all are tied to them.

For this contest, take a picture of something that represents our neighborhood to you. This theme is pretty subjective, so be sure to use the description to say

WHY the chosen subject represents Arlington Park to you.

Submit photo to: Info@ar-lingtonpark.net. Be sure to include the location of the photo, your full name and phone number. No more than one submission per month.

The winner will be announced monthly and will be awarded $25 worth of golf passes, pool passes or something of comparable value.

We will all look forward to seeing the photo of the month featured on the website at www.arlingtonpark.net.
